Since the rhythmic character of a piece depends mainly upon the rendition of the shortest notes, the dotted figures in the above study must be played with vigor and precision. It is a very common fault that the sixteenth note does not project equally with the dotted eighth.